The funniest mirth makers in Edinburgh at the happiest price

Scotland's only year round seven day a week comedy club and its comedians are proud to support the Edinburgh People's Festival, the festival for the people and by the people of the City.

Five top calibre stand ups, all currently appearing in solo shows at The Stand will appear on Friday 15th August as part of the Edinburgh People's Festival comedy night. It promises to be a gala show with an extraordinary range of styles encompassing the character comedy of unemployed Geordie ship worker, Mick Sergeant, music from Cripple Creek's Wilson Dixon and fine stand up from Ireland's Kevin Gildea, the North-East's Jason (whose show 'Joy' is picking up 5-star reviews across the board) and Scotland's own Teddy Bares. Tickets are at the staggeringly low price of £2 making this probably the best value ticket in Edinburgh this month.
